Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Dorothy Livesay was a Canadian poet whose work spanned over five decades. She was born in Winnipeg in 1909 and moved to Toronto with her parents at the age of ten. Her father, J.F.B. Livesay, was the first general manager of the Canadian Press, a war correspondent during World War I, and author of Canada's Hundred Days (1919). Her mother, Florence Randal Livesay, was a poet of distinction and a pioneer in the field of translating verse from Ukrainian into English. Dorothy Livesay studied at the University of Toronto and the Sorbonne, afterwards becoming a welfare worker, then a newspaper reporter, and finally a teacher. She taught Canadian Literature at the University of Victoria for two years. At the University of Alberta, she taught Canadian Literature and Creative Writing. She also taught in the United States and Zambia, the latter as a UNESCO field specialist. Known chiefly as a poet, Dorothy Livesay won the Lorne Pierce Medal in 1947 for distinguished service to Canadian literature. During the 1940s, she was twice honoured with the Governor-General's Award for Poetry. Some of her best-known poetry publications include Green Pitcher (1928), Call My People Home (1950), Ice Age (1975), Right Hand Left Hand (1977), The Woman I Am (1977), The Phases of Love (1983), and Journey With My Selves: a Memoir, 1909-1963 (1991). She died on December 29, 1996.

Custodial history

The fonds was donated to University of Manitoba Archives & Special Collections in multiple installments between 1978 and 1988, and in 1992, 1999, 2002, 2003, and 2004 by Dorothy Livesay and her heirs.

Scope and content

---

The fonds consists of biographical material, correspondence, drafts, and versions of Dorothy Livesay's writings of all genres. The records are divided into five categories: autobiographical, biographical, bibliographical, business papers regarding her writing and her personal business papers. The remainder of the manuscript collection consists of plays, reviews, poems, short stories, essays, talks and addresses, and memoirs. The photograph collection contains pictures of Dorothy Livesay, her family and friends, and places and buildings. The tape collection consists of conversations between Livesay and others, interviews, poetry readings, radio broadcasts, music, and memoirs.

Restricted correspondence

Physical description: 31 letters

Access points:

- Textual record (documentary form)

Restrictions on access:

Because the Collection is current and contains some sensitive material, Livesay and others have placed certain restrictions on access and use. The following specific materials, as per the terms of the Deed of Gift, and which are referred to in boxes 41, 42, 77, and 78 of the Container List, are not available for public access "until at least ten years" after the death of the donor: Correspondence between Livesay and Duncan Macnair and friends; Correspondence between Livesay and Jim Harris; Letters of Livesay to Leo Kennedy. Furthermore, the letters of Leo Kennedy to Livesay (Box 77) are closed to the public for thirty years after Mr. Kennedy's death, save to his official biographer and his daughter-in-law, Patricia Kennedy. Similarly the letters of Seymour Mayne (Box 77) and Steven Buri (Box 77) cannot be examined without their consent. Since other restrictions may yet be imposed by writers whose letters and other writings appear here, researchers are urged to consult with department officials before using the Collection.

Date: 1919-1983 (date of creation)

Access points:

- Textual record (documentary form)

Restrictions on access:

Copyright to most of Livesay's letters, poems, writings, and other creative works, if not already published, resides with the University of Manitoba although Livesay has an exclusive right to publish her own works. Although Livesay still owns copyright to some materials in the Collection (a listing is available in the Department), this copyright will automatically reside with the University upon her death. With respect to the writings of people other than Livesay, researchers shall abide by the copyright laws of Canada as amended from time to time.

Accession MSS 37, PC 43, TC 31-PC043: Dorothy Livesay fonds

Creator: Livesay, Dorothy

Date: 1907-1983 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

The collection consists of photographs of Livesay, family members, friends, and fellow writers. There are photographs of family homes and other places where Livesay has lived and worked, notably Manitoba, British Columbia, and Zambia. In the listing, identifications transcribed from the photographs themselves are placed within double quotation marks. Many of the photographs are held also as slides and negatives, a few in slide or negative form only: the notations "P," "S" and "N" beside the item number indicate the formats (Print, Slide, Negative). All negatives are stored in Box #4. Slides are stored separately in the slides cabinet.

Physical description: 766 photographs and other graphic material. Note: Also contains 322 slides, 419 negatives, and 6 postcards.

Accession MSS 37, PC 43, TC 31-A2004-110 031: Dorothy Livesay Tape Collection

Creator: Livesay, Dorothy

Date: 1965-1992 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

The collection consists of audio tapes of poetry readings, memoirs, interviews, music, and recordings of CBC programs.

Physical description: 3 cm of textual material, 2 reels, 54 tapes

Language of the material:

English

Access points:

- Textual record (documentary form)
- Sound recording (documentary form)

Immediate source of acquisition:

The first and largest accession of papers arrived September 27, 1978 shortly after it was decided that the Archives & Special Collections at the University of Manitoba should own and handle the Collection. In the following six years, eighteen further accessions were received.

Arrangement:

This collection is arranged into three series:

1. Reels
2. Tapes
3. Commercial Tapes

Restrictions on access:

There are no restrictions on access.

Finding aids:

A finding aid can be downloaded by clicking on the "Download" link under "Finding Aid" on the right hand side of the screen.

Related material:

Tape recordings, photographs, and printed works such as books and pamphlets have been separated from the papers and manuscripts. The forty-three recordings have their own accession number TC 31 and are fully described. The 852 photographs, most of which are of Livesay and members of her family, constitute PC 43. Those of her books not already in the University of Manitoba Libraries system have been catalogued for inclusion in the library.
