Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Agricultural broadcaster and reporter since 1944, Moore joined CBC Radio in 1950, retiring from this distinguished career in 1979. He worked closely with the Faculty of Agriculture at the University of Manitoba and holds an honorary membership to the National Council of the Agricultural Institute of Canada.

Custodial history

The Lionel Moore collection was given to the University of Manitoba Archives & Special Collections on March 18, 1993. The donor, Grant Taylor, was one of Mr. Moore's colleagues.

Scope and content

This collection is comprised of three series. The first series, "Reports," contains scripts of reports Lionel Moore completed for the CBC as agricultural correspondent. The files are arranged chronologically and those with no specific date are filed last. The second series, "Scrapbooks," is made up of scrapbooks containing mostly clippings. The third series, "Photographs," is a photographic collection which has been separated and is now held as PC 92.
