Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Nancy Evelyn Shipley (nee Somerville) was born in Glasgow, Scotland on November 6, 1902. In 1920's she moved to Winnipeg and married George Shipley. Nan Shipley published fourteen books and numerous short stories and articles. Her first book Anna and the Indians (1955) had been reprinted many times. Among her better known publications are Frances and the Crees (1957); The Railway Builders (1965); The James Evan Story (1966); and Churchill: Canada's Northern Gateway (1974). As a big supporter of Aboriginal and Metis culture, she organized Manitoba's first Indian handicrafts sales centre (1959) and focused her writing on Indian and Metis women. In 1965 Shipley was elected Woman of the Year by the Women's Advertising and Sales Club of Winnipeg. She also hosted weekly television program (1974-75) at CKND Winnipeg. Nan Shipley passed away on January 23, 1990.

1904 - Born in Glasgow, Scotland, daughter of Robert Somerville and Mary (MacDonald) Somerville.
1925 - Married George Shipley.

1955 - First book published by Ryerson Press Book "Anna and the Indians"

1960-61 - Radio and television series on Western Indian lore and culture given.

1965 - Woman of the Year in Manitoba award.

1966 - Good Citizen and Golden Boy Awards received.

1966-67 - Instructor at University of Manitoba Evening Institute.

1970 - Received North Dakota State University award for Historical Writing.

1970 - Presented a brief to Status of Women Commission on Women of Indian and Metis ancestry.

1972 - With Alex Grisdale, published "Wild Drums."

1974 - Published "Churchill: Canada's Northern Gateway:"(her 13th book) which received the Margaret McWilliams Medal.

1978 - Reader's Digest published condensed form of "Return to the River."

1979 - Paper given at University of Manitoba Annual Archives Symposium.

1981 - Anonymous donor established two Nan Shipley Scholarships.

1982 - Published "The International Peace Garden. 50th Anniversary." Peguis Press.

Custodial history

A1979-014 was donated to the University of Manitoba Archives & Special Collections by Nan Shipley on February 12, 1979.

A2005-082 was donated to the University of Manitoba Archives & Special Collections by Judith L. Leyshon in 2005.

Scope and content

A1979-014 includes lecture notes, manuscripts and published articles, radio and television scripts, maps, photographs, newspaper clippings, magazine articles and scrapbooks. In addition, there are three boxes of Indian Legends, recorded in the scrapbooks of Alex Grisdale of the Scanterbury Indian Reservation (2 boxes) and transcribed by Mrs. Shipley (1 box).

The map collection is noteworthy for its maps of the old Indian trails which crossed the prairie provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

The photograph collection contains pictures of historic sites throughout Manitoba. It is particularly valuable, however, for its record of old and new, urban and rural transportation in Manitoba (e.g. Red River carts, streetcars, railways, steamships, dog sleds and air transport). It provides a pictorial record of hydro developments in northern Manitoba and of the growth and demise of northern towns and settlements. Major and cottage industries, wildlife, flora and fauna of Manitoba are included. Among the portraits are native peoples, early missionaries and settlers and contemporary civic minded individuals. The research materials are on miscellaneous topics paralleling those of the picture collection.

A2005-082 consists of Nan Shipley's unpublished autobiography Most of it was fun; unpublished manuscript Women of Fort Albany, correspondence, and numerous short stories and articles.
